

Human Trafficking 101: Training for Askable Adults

Tuesday, September 30 from 5:30-7:00 p.m.
844 Delaware Avenue Library

At C+FS, we are committed to equipping foster parents with the knowledge and tools to keep youth safe. Join our Youth Trafficking Prevention Program for an important training focused on recognizing and preventing human trafficking.

Learning objectives

- Understand what human trafficking is and how to recognize its signs
- Identify risk factors and vulnerable populations
- Develop an understanding of familial trafficking
- Learn strategies to help ensure the safety of youth in your care
- Receive information about local resources, including the Youth Trafficking Prevention (YTP) program

While parents participate in training, children are invited to a “Staying Safe” workshop in the 824 ½ Gym.

RSVP to Bailie Murty, Program Coordinator of Youth Trafficking Prevention, at bmurty@cfsbny.org by Friday, September 26.
