

Restorative Circle

Wednesday, April 22 from 5:30–7:30 p.m.
844 Delaware Library

Dinner will be provided, parking available!

Do you ever feel misunderstood, or like conversations turn into arguments or awkward moments?

A Restorative Circle is a place where you can come and share your thoughts and feelings in an atmosphere of safety, acceptance and equality and listen to others share theirs. The goal is to build understanding, connection and meaningful communication.

Spots are limited, so register now!

Questions? Contact Emily Fien,
Education Specialist for the Youth Trafficking Prevention Program
efien@cfsbny.org | (716) 336-7337

